My dear Aunt Anne,

It was with the greatest pleasure that I received your photograph, the day before yesterday. I am

Glad You thought and cared enough to send one, and as I never had one, I am Especially glad to

had a very pleasant Summer in our quiet little country home, - and have enjoyed watching the ripening and harvesting of the fruits and various crops - for this is a tremendously productive region - And we have enjoyed more our own garden, with its generous supply of vegetables and flowers. They are such a pleasure.

Visits from various members of the family and friends have made us glad - just now Carrie Penn is with me and we are making the most of these clear, crisp days, which make golf a pleasure, and fires and books a comfort.

You, I trust, have had a profitable Summer. I hope some day - not far distant - that my husband and I may see you. Meantime accept our best thanks and love - Carrie's included.
Give my love to Miss Manning too.
Affectionately Emily Betts Loomis.

have so charming a picture of our one family celebrity. Truly, it is a remarkably good, and interesting, - likeness.

I have been hearing of you in a round about way - through Minnie and Mother - the way most of my news comes nowadays.
Hester and I have
